The National Drug Council is pleased to announce that the Purple Ribbon Bus will run Saturday, New Year's Eve, 31st December 2016 from 9pm to 3am. This year we have 8 buses operating which will run constant routes between West Bay and George Town, and hourly to Bodden Town, East End and North Side.

Persons who are interested in using this service should look out for the buses displaying flashing purple lights and purple exterior reflective signs. The buses will pick up passengers at all major restaurants, bars, nightclubs and bus stops. Flag down the bus and hop on! Remember It's FREE!

This is the 16th year the Purple Ribbon Bus service has been offered and we would like to extend our deepest gratitude to all of our sponsors who have made this possible; Dart, Jacques Scott, Cayman National Bank, Ecay, Mourant Ozannes, Greenlight RE, MaplesFS, Royal Cayman Islands Police (RCIPS), Radio Cayman, Foster's Food Fair – IGA. On behalf of the National Drug Council, its Board of Directors and our sponsors we would like to encourage residents and visitors alike to take advantage of this opportunity to ensure you arrive home safely.
